Returning to the Amazonian Frontier...

This woman next to me is Elaine Souza! We both have a passion for and work with the indigenous people groups! For over the last year we have communicated, but during my time in Sao Paulo I was able to meet her and stay in her home. Next year we will be traveling for the minimum of two months together!

On September 4th I will be returning to the Amazonian frontier of Brazil, Colombia and Peru. Months ago while I was there I was able to connect with Rhema Colombia and because of this connection I am able to go back with a strategic purpose and plan! They have asked me to teach at the Rhema Bible Training Center in Tabatinga teaching on youth ministry, hold a three day faith and healing conference at the Rhema church in Leticia, & evangelistic outreaches in both Tabatinga & Leticia. Also, what I am most excited about is traveling back to the villages carrying my backpack, knife, rope, hammock and tromping around in my big hefty boots as we move forward in the deeper parts of the jungle!! For my travels over the next two months, I will not be going solo, but there is a young 18 year old woman from Canada who has a heart and passion for the Amazon who will be traveling with me and learning the "ropes" of a single woman missionary who does itinerate evangelistic ministry in the Amazon! I am excited about "training up a Timothy" and investing into her life for the people that God has called her to! I am truly excited for what my last three months here in Brazil is going to be!

At the prayer conference I was able to attend in Belo Horizonte I was able to reconnect with one of my professors from Rhema USA, Mrs. Leigh Ann and her husband, Jerry!

In Manaus a group of people from Pastor Joao and Elenice's church went to Ponto Negra and we all ate tapiocia stuffed with dry shredded beef, cheese...and some other sweet tasting items!!

Here is precious Isabella Moura & myself! Her parents live in Manacapuru and I am their adopted "white daughter"

"Signature Of Beauty"

Evangelistic Women's Conference & healing crusade in Manacapuru, Amazon.

Last year when I had traveled to Manacapuru for the first time, the Lord spoke to my heart to hold an evangelistic women's conference. This city is the second largest sex capital in the Brazilian Amazon. The Lord wants to do an incredible work that will transform the heart of the women. So this year, when I traveled to Manacapuru I shared the vision the Lord placed in my heart with the Pastors' in the city and they all have jumped in and are excited about what the Lord has! This conference will not be inside of a church, but at an outside venue in order to have a wider span of influence to those in need of the restoring and healing power of God.

The cost of the event is going to be between $6,000-$8,000!

Will you please prayerfully consider being a part of "Signature Of Beauty"? ...by coming along side of me for intercession on behalf of this city and to financially pour into this event? It will make an eternal impact—not only the lives of the women; but the children, husbands and entire families. We must get to the root of the issues before the fruit of their lives can be changed!
